Internet Find of the Month

In this section we will be posting websites we stumbled upon and thought were interesting so we wanted to share them with you!

This month's internet find: Thanksgiving Decorating with Nature
Website: <http://www.bhg.com/holidays/thanksgiving/indoor-decorating/thanksgiving-decorating-with-nature/>

How we found it: Google always leads the way!
What we like about it: You're using components from your own backyard!

Did you find an interesting website? Want to share it? Email it to aray@hedbergaggregates.com and let us know about it.

Tree of the Month

Balsam Fir (a perfect option for the Holiday Season)

abies balsamea, B&B. Balsam fir is a native tree to Minnesota and grown primarily for Christmas trees. Balsam fir are moisture tolerant and prefer acid soils with ph below 6.0 . Growth characteristics: Balsam fir will grow 12" per year once established. They will also tolerate shady locations and moist locations. Balsam fir do not tolerate salt conditions. Balsam fir are also vulnerable to winter burn and should not be planted where winter sun and northwest winds penetrate. Disease: Balsam fir are host trees for adelge midge which appears as purple cones of insects. These larvae cones can be picked or the trees can be treated with a dormant oil.
